ORDER

AND NOW, this 12th day of August, 2025, the Court having received a "Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus Ad Prosequendum" filed by the Commonwealth on August 8, 2025, following the telephone status conference wherein the Court advised Counsel that any request for issuance of a Writ shall include the legal authority for the same, and the Commonwealth having failed to do so in its Petition, entry of the following Order is deemed appropriate:

It is hereby ORDERED, DIRECTED, and DECREED that:

1. The Court will take under advisement the Commonwealth's Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus Ad Prosequendum.
2. The Commonwealth shall file a memorandum citing the procedure and legal authority it is relying upon in filing the aforementioned petition to bring Defendant to Pennsylvania for the purpose of litigating his pretrial motions, following waiver for extradition.

3. The Commonwealth has seven (7) days from the date of this Order to comply with this Order.

BY THE COURT:

Jackie Atherton Bernard
